The Culture of Invitation

from many of our new members and visitors, Holy Trinity is a welcoming church.

With such a positive reputation, one would expect a lot more people in our pews on Sunday mornings and our other events. The fact that there are only a few of us, suggests that there are other things we may not be doing as well. I believe one of the things we need to be more intentional about is invitation. Being a welcoming church is good but of little help if there are no visitors to welcome; and visitors will not visit unless they are invited.

According to statistics:

- 82% of the un-churched are at least somewhat likely to attend church if invited
- 75 – 90% of new church members started coming because they were invited by someone who attends the church

- 10 – 30% of first-time visitors will eventually become members

Why invite others to Church?

The simple answer is that it is what Christians are called to do. It is very clear that the Christian movement began when Jesus invited two of John the Baptist's disciples to "Come and See". We are told that one of those disciples was Andrew. The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother, Simon Peter, and tell him, "We have found the Messiah." He brought him to Jesus. The next day Jesus found Phillip to whom he said, "Follow Me". Phillip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law ... Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." When Nathanael asked whether anything good could come from Nazareth, Phillip answered, "Come and See." (John 1:39-46). This and numerous other examples in the Bible and people's own experiences throughout history, clearly show that the church or any other organization can only exist if members make it a habit to invite others.

While I must admit that inviting others to church is easier said than done, the biggest obstacle has been the loss of "the culture of invitation." Somehow, we have concluded that what is good for us is not necessarily good for others and have decided to keep it to ourselves. Faith, in particular, has become a private matter instead of something beautiful to which everyone is invited and welcome to "taste and see."

How to invite someone to Church?

There are certainly many ways to invite someone to church. I personally find the following steps developed over ten years ago by the Rev. Scott Thompson and members of St. James Episcopal Church in Mosinee, Wisconsin, to be very helpful.

1) Make a list of everyone you know that you could possibly invite to Holy Trinity (family, friends, colleagues, neighbors, etc). Anyone not regularly involved in a church should be invited. Some people have their membership at a church, but seldom (if ever) attend. Obviously, whatever that church has to offer, it is not making an impact on that particular individual. Perhaps God would use you and Holy Trinity to make an impact and bring that person's faith to life! You'll never know until you care enough to extend an invitation.

2) Work the list and pray. Go for it. Talk to someone. Give someone a call. And before you talk to people, talk to God about the people he is leading you to invite. Pray that he will give you the right words to say. Pray that he will put your spirit at ease. (Some people get nervous talking to others about church.) Pray that he will open the hearts of those you invite.

3) Share what Holy Trinity means to you. No advertisement is as effective as a satisfied "customer." You may want to sit down and think about what Holy Trinity means to you and put it into your own words. Then when it's clear in your own mind, share what you feel with others.

4) Make a specific invitation. "Join us sometime" is too open ended. That's like saying "Come over to dinner sometime." The invitee doesn't know whether he/she is really being invited or not. So be specific. Example: "I'm going to Holy Trinity this Sunday and I would love for you to join me." If they can't make it, they will say so, and you can invite them again another time. If they say they are already a member at another church, ask them how often they go or how involved they are. If they are really committed to that other church, take them off your list. If they are not really committed, continue to invite them, unless it becomes obvious that they are averse to your asking. Don't give up too easily, but don't be obnoxious. People need the Lord, and some people need a loving friend who will take an interest in their spiritual needs. That's why Holy Trinity exists. And you are Christ's hands to reach out to those people. If you don't reach out, who will?

5) Provide the transportation. Include in your invitation your intention to provide the transportation. Example: "I'm going to Holy Trinity this Sunday, and I would love for you to join me... It starts at 10:30; I'll pick you up at 9:45!" If they know you are coming to get them, they will have to be ready, and sleeping in or not going will be less tempting. You yourself might be tempted to think that such an approach is being a little "pushy." Your friend might even think that too. BUT, if they come with you to church and find their faith and the joy that is gained in a new relationship with God through Jesus Christ. they will be forever grateful that you took the time and effort to get them to church. So go ahead, be bold, bold as love, and reach out!

As we approach Holy Week and Easter, this may be a wonderful opportunity for you to invite the friend, neighbor, or relative who has no church connection. It is my hope that as we pray and practice these things, we will one day be known not just for our welcoming but for our invitation as well.

“O let all who thirst, let them to the water...

Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord

Bring the children, without might

Easy the load and light

Come to the Lord.”

(Gather Hymnal #502)

Sr. Warden's Report

I want to thank all who were able to join us at the Annual Meeting and luncheon. I want to thank Annette Freeman and Bonnie Hultin for such a wonderful job preparing and serving our meal. It is always pleasant when we get to socialize and “break bread” together.

This month we had our annual Pancake Dinner – our last hurrah before Lent. I thank the Men's Group for doing such a nice job of cooking and serving us that evening.

March promises another evening of eating together; that will be on March 28th, Maundy Thursday. We partake in an Agape Meal again this year. We will meet at the Parish Hall at 5pm for prayers and foot washing. We will dine on a simple meal of bread, soup, wine and fruit. We will proceed to the Church at 6:30 for service and the stripping of the altar. I have always found this to be the most profound service of the year. When the altar is being stripped, it reminds me of the solemn days coming. Good Friday and the Easter Vigil are days I really feel the sacrifice Jesus made on our behalf. Good Friday Stations will be done outside at 12pm and in the Church at 6pm. The Easter Vigil will be at 8pm. Easter Sunday will be the usual 8am and 10:30am services.

March 23rd is Fruitland Park Day. It is held at the Fruitland Park Library parking lot. There are vendors, a barbeque cook off, dunking tank, music and a parade. This year the parade will include the students of Holy Trinity Episcopal School. So, come and cheer our kids on and visit us at the Holy Trinity Table. The festivities will begin at 10am.

March will be a very active month and, and I am hoping you will be able to join us in as many of them as possible.

Doris Brennan – Senior Warden

Made in His Image, A Shakespearean Sonnet

How would it feel to tell the stars to flash
Their light across a darkened nighttime sky,
Just talk instead of labile tempers clash,
Around a holy fire on mountain high.
To shower skies with snow or water drops,
Or fill the seas with fish and sparkling sand,
To tell the sun it's time to shine - or not,
Or throw a thunderbolt out of my hand.
To make the devil tremble lasting fear,
Proclaim that death and sinfulness will fall,
To penetrate perdition through eyes clear,
Provide the cross of life to save us all.
God tells us truth to show the path to choose and find his love and grace for me and you.

Parishioner Spotlight

This month our Parishioner Spotlight is on Gay and Bob Hensley. Gay did a terrific job of writing the article that we share below:

We joined Holy Trinity in early 2013. At that time, we lived in Hillsborough. We were here year-round until June, 2022. We sold our home and returned to Arkansas. The last two years, we've rented, in Hillsborough, for Jan.-March.

While in The Villages we were involved with the table tennis club, learned and played pickleball, golf, and belonged to the Mini and the Penn State clubs. We continue with those sports in AR.

We live in the city of Maumelle, near Little Rock. Bob was originally from Conway, AR. and I lived in the Little Rock area since 1979. My two sons were raised there, but I'm originally from PA.

Bob served for 23 years in the Army, so he and his family moved to many different states and Europe during that time. Bob then started a real estate company in Conway. I was an elementary and middle school teacher for many years.

Bob and I met in 2005, in a social club, and were married in 2006. We were both blessed to find a terrific mate later in life. We've been married for 17 years already!

I serve as a lector and LEM. and Bob ushers, at both of our churches. At Holy Trinity, I served two terms on the Vestry, and we both play with the Holy Hackers. I was very involved in the school as a helper, tutor, and was on the school board. When we're here for three months I still tutor. At St. Luke's Episcopal, in North Little Rock, I work in the Clothes Closet, and manage our small food pantry.

Bob and I have done some traveling to states and countries that were new to us. During our three months here, we have enjoyed reconnecting with friends in our neighborhood and at church. It's like the best of both worlds!!

Central Florida Diocesan Altar Guild Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Central Florida Diocesan Altar guild was held February 10. at St. George Episcopal Church. Father Samuel, Holy Trinity Altar Guild Directress, Dianne Casson, and 13 altar guild members attended the meeting.

A continental breakfast and coffee were served with a time for meet and greet, viewing an exchange table and treasurer's table. The business meeting was conducted with an introduction of the Northwest Deanery co-hosts.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Justin S. Holcomb, Bishop was the celebrant. He spoke of the history and the importance of the ministry of the Altar guild. Holy Eucharist was conducted in the St. George Episcopal Sanctuary.

After lunch, special guests The Rev. Garcia Barnswell-Schmidt was introduced as the Diocesan Altar Guild Chaplain. Rev. Dr. Porter Taylor, Rector at St. David's by-the-Sea, Cocoa Beach was introduced as the guest speaker.

The Rev. Dr. Porter C. Taylor presented an informative and interesting presentation of "Vesting for the Story of Salvation." He explained that vestment colors, altar hangings, and banners, tell the "Story of Salvation." The Liturgical Year is divided into two cycles: The Cycle of Light and the Cycle of Life. Each cycle has three phases: preparation, celebration, and proclamation. The Cycles tell "The Story of the Life of Jesus" and "The Story of the People of God."

The Diocesan Altar Guild Annual Meeting rotates to a different Deanery each year.

Our United Thank Offering Ministry

Dear Parishioners,

We are now a month into our UTO Ministry. I hope it has opened your eyes, as it has mine, to just how I am blessed by my Lord and Savior. I have always felt blessed, but when thinking about it daily and with Bob, I am really expressing my thanks and add my coins daily to our UTO little blue box and truly feel the love of my Lord. I hope there are others who are having similar experiences. I would love to hear your thoughts on your walk through this Ministry. Feel free to share when you see me or you could text or email me.

More information will follow on our collecting of little blue boxes after Easter. May we each continue to recognize our daily blessings.
